This tax organizer has been prepared for your use in gathering the information needed for your 2018 tax return.

To save you time, selected information from your 2017 tax return has been entered in this organizer. Please line through any information that does not apply to your 2018 tax return.

In some cases, 2017 amounts have been included in a separate column. These amounts are for comparison purposes only. You do not need to change these prior year amounts.

If we may be of further assistance, please contact us at your convenience.

The following is a brief overview of some of the TCJA's key points affecting individuals:

Tax Rates and Brackets. TCJA provides seven tax brackets, with most rates being two to three points lower than the ones under present law (the top rate goes from 39.6 percent to 37 percent). The top rate kicks in at $600,000 of taxable income for joint filers, $300,000 for married taxpayers filing separately, and $400,000 for all other individual taxpayers.

Personal Exemptions and Standard Deduction. TCJA repeals the personal exemption deductions, but nearly doubles the standard deduction amounts to $24,000 for joint filers and surviving spouses, $18,000 for heads of household, and $12,000 for single individuals and married filing separately (additional amounts for the elderly and blind are retained).

Exemption for Dependents and Child Tax Credit. As part of the repeal of personal exemption deductions, TCJA repealed exemptions for dependents. To compensate, TCJA increases the child tax credit to $2,000 ($1,400 is refundable), up from $1,000 (fully refundable) under present law. The modified adjusted gross income threshold where the credit phases out is $400,000 for joint filers and $200,000 for all others (up from $230,000 and $115,000, respectively). The maximum age for a child eligible for the credit remains 16 (at the end of the tax year). TCJA also provides a $500 nonrefundable tax credit for dependent children over age 16 and all other dependents. The child and dependent care expenses credit, the adoption credit, and the exclusions for dependent care assistance and adoption assistance under employer plans are all unchanged by TCJA.

Passthrough Tax Break. TCJA creates a new 20 percent deduction for qualified business income from sole proprietorships, S corporations, partnerships, and LLCs taxed as partnerships. The deduction, which is available to both itemizers and non-itemizers, is claimed by individuals on their personal tax returns as a reduction to taxable income. The new tax break is subject to some complicated restrictions and limitations, but the rules that apply to individuals with taxable income at or below $157,500 ($315,000 for joint filers) are simpler and more permissive than the ones that apply above those thresholds.

Deduction for State and Local Taxes (SALT). TCJA imposes a $10,000 limit on the deduction for state and local taxes, which can be used for both property taxes and income taxes (or sales taxes in lieu of income taxes) and repeals the deduction for foreign property taxes.

Mortgage Interest Deduction. TCJA reduces to $750,000 (from $1 million) the limit on the loan amount for which a mortgage interest deduction can be claimed by individuals, with existing loans grandfathered. TCJA also repeals the deduction for interest on home equity loans.

Deduction for Medical Expenses. TCJA lowers the adjusted gross income (AGI) floor for claiming the deduction from 10 percent to 7.5 percent for all taxpayers.

Deduction for Casualty and Theft Losses. TCJA repeals the deduction for casualty and theft losses, except for losses incurred in presidentially declared disaster areas.

Deduction for Charitable Contributions. TCJA retains the charitable contribution deduction and increases the maximum contribution percentage limit from 50 percent of a taxpayer's contribution base to 60 percent for cash contributions to public charities.

Deduction for Certain Miscellaneous Expenses. TCJA repeals the deduction for all miscellaneous itemized deductions subject to 2-percent of AGI floor, including unreimbursed business expenses and employee home office deductions.

Repeal of Alimony Deduction. TCJA repeals the deduction for alimony paid and the corresponding inclusion in income by the recipient, effective for tax years beginning in 2019. Alimony paid under separation agreements entered into prior to 2019 will generally be grandfathered under the old rules.

Alternative Minimum Tax. TCJA increases alternative minimum tax (AMT) exemption amounts by 27%, and sharply increases the income level where the exemption is phased out. Combined with the effects of other TCJA changes, many individuals who are currently subject AMT in 2017, will not be in 2018 and beyond.

Expanded Uses for 529 Plan Distributions. TCJA allows up to $10,000 in aggregate 529 distributions per year to be used for elementary and secondary school tuition. Under present law, 529 distributions can only be used for higher education expenses.

January 2019

Dear Client,

We wish you a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year.

Enclosed is the 2018 tax organizer and helpful instructions to guide you in gathering the necessary information in order for us to prepare your tax return. Kindly read through the pages and confirm and update your current contact information in the organizer. This makes it easier for us to reach you if we have any questions.

Please sign the engagement letter where indicated and return it to us with your data in order to ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities. Please do this even if you do not use the complete organizer in gathering your tax information. Signed engagement letters are requested prior to our preparing your returns, however sending us your tax data will imply agreement with the terms of our engagement.

If you would like to email us your tax files via Citrix Sharefile, just email us at admin@actcpa.com and we will send you a Sharefile link.

The filing deadline for the tax returns is Monday, April 15th. In order to meet this filing deadline, and not go on extension, the information needed to complete your returns should be received in this office no later than March 30, 2019. Our objective is to minimize extensions. Complete and accurate submission of your tax data is important. Therefore, all returns received AFTER March 30th, or those with incomplete information as of that date, will be placed on extension in order for us to have the time to prepare a complete and accurate tax return for you. If any extensions are required, an estimate of tax due will be calculated for you and must be paid with the extension in order to avoid interest and penalties. The extension will then provide you additional time to gather your information. The deadline for tax filing with the extension is October 15, 2019.

I am always thankful for great clients like you. Our business is growing because of referrals from clients like you. I appreciate every referral and pledge to deliver the very best in service.

We want to express our appreciation for the opportunity to work with you, not only at tax time, but also throughout the year. If you have any questions, please contact us.

Sincerely,

Cristina Andreana, CPA

ORGANIZER INSTRUCTIONS

Your completed tax organizer and supporting documents are scanned in our files. Staples cause pages to stick together even after the staple is removed, please use clips if needed rather than staples.

This year there are many new tax law changes, including a new look to the 2018 tax returns, additional questions may need to be answered in order to accurately complete your return, if you have any questions in gathering your information please contact us. We are here to help.

If you paid estimates for 2018, confirm the amounts provided in the organizer are the actual amounts you paid, notate any changes. We will report that all estimates have been paid timely by you unless you note otherwise.

If you file in Alabama. California. Illinois. Kansas. Louisiana. New York. Ohio. Virginia. And/or Wisconsin, your driver's license info is required for both taxpayer and spouse:. Please include a legible copy (front and back) of your driver's license(s). There is also space to add the information in the organizer section for Personal Information. New York also requires the Document number found on your driver's license.

If an account or item listed on the organizer has been closed or does not apply to 2018, cross out or indicate the item is no longer relevant. This will avoid delays in completing your return.

When providing the required documents listed below, you do not need to fill in all fields on the organizer; we will use the data from respective tax forms.

The following documents in addition to your completed tax organizer, are required, if applicable, in order to complete your return accurately and completely.

- Form(s) W-2, including any corrections on Form W-2C.
- Complete consolidated brokerage form(s) 1099 B - showing cost basis and date of purchase. (not just gross proceeds schedules).
- Forms 1099 – R, MISC, INT, DIV, B, G, K, C, H, S, and consolidated.
- Schedules K-1 (federal and states) from LLCs, partnerships, trusts, estates and S Corporations.
- Forms 1095-A, 1095-B, 1095-C, if you have received insurance under the ACA, or received premium tax credits, you may need to go online to access forms from your healthcare provider.
- Copies of all documents marked “Important Tax Information”
- If claiming child tax credit, Head of Household, or EITC, provide proof of residency for your child(ren).
- Tuition credits now need additional verification in addition to the Form 1098-T, provide billing statements from the education institution, documenting amounts billed and payments made.
- Any documentation for unusual transactions or those transactions which you are unclear as to where to include in the organizer etc. (for example stock option grants etc)
- Closing (HUD) statements from the sale, purchase or refinance of real estate.
- If this is our first year preparing returns for you, please provide a copy of your prior year federal and state returns, if not previously provided.
- Information regarding Foreign Assets, disclosure of foreign assets are very strict if you own any foreign assets, please let us know, this also includes accounts that you may have signatory authority over as well as joint accounts that may be held with family members.

January 2, 2019

Dear Client,

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of our engagement with you for the year ended December 31, 2018 and to clarify the nature and extent of the tax services we will provide. We will prepare the federal, state and local individual income tax returns for the calendar year ending December 31, 2018.

It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. You should retain all documents, canceled checks, and other data that form the basis of income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. Our work in connection with the preparation of the tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist. The returns will be prepared solely from information provided to us without verification by us however, we may ask for clarification of some information. You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them.

We have provided you with our tax organizer and instructions to assist you in gathering and organizing the necessary information for us. You represent that the information you are supplying to us is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge and that you have disclosed to us all relevant facts affecting the returns. We are under no duty to check the information you provide to determine whether you may have a filing obligation with another state or foreign entity. If we become aware of any other filing requirement, we will tell you of the obligation and may prepare the appropriate returns at your request. This will include the ownership of or signature authority over any foreign bank accounts and the ownership of any other foreign financial assets.

You should also know that IRS audit procedures will almost always include questions on bartering transactions and on deductions that require strict documentation for expenses such as travel, meals and business usage of autos and computers. In preparing your returns, we rely on your representations that we have been informed of all bartering transactions and that you understand and have complied with the documentation requirements for your expenses and deductions.

If, during our work, we discover information that affects prior-year tax returns, we will make you aware of the facts. However, we cannot be responsible for identifying all items that may affect prior-year returns. If you become aware of such information during the year, please contact us to discuss the best resolution of the issue. We will be happy to prepare appropriate amended returns as a separate engagement.

This engagement letter does not cover the preparation of any financial statements, which, if we are to provide, will be covered under a separate engagement letter.

The firm may use third-party service providers to assist in preparing your return, but these preparers will not make substantive decisions concerning your return. We remain committed to maintaining the confidentiality and security of your information. Accordingly, we maintain internal policies, procedures and safeguards to protect the confidentiality of your personal information. In addition, we will secure confidentiality agreements with all service providers to maintain the confidentiality of your information and we will take reasonable precautions to determine that they have appropriate procedures in place to prevent the unauthorized release of your confidential information to others. Furthermore, the firm will remain responsible for the work provided by any such third-party service providers.

In accordance with federal law, in no case will we disclose your tax return information to any location outside the United States, to another tax return preparer outside of our firm for purposes of a second opinion, or to any other third party for any purpose other than to prepare your return without first receiving your consent.

The Internal Revenue Code and regulations impose preparation and disclosure standards with non-compliance penalties on both the preparer of a tax return and on the taxpayer. To avoid exposure to these penalties, it may be necessary in some cases to make certain disclosures to you and/or in the tax return concerning positions taken on the return that don't meet these standards. Accordingly, we will discuss tax positions that may increase the risk of exposure to penalties and any recommended disclosures with you before completing the preparation of the return. If we concluded that we are obligated to disclose a position and you refuse to permit the disclosure, we reserve the right to withdraw from the engagement and you agree to compensate us for our services to the date of withdrawal. Our engagement with you will terminate upon our withdrawal.

It is our policy to keep tax return records related to this engagement for three years. However, we will return your original records to you upon the completion of the engagement. When records are returned to you, it is your responsibility to retain and protect the records for possible future use, including potential examination by governmental or regulatory agencies, and banks when refinancing. By signing this engagement letter, you acknowledge and agree that upon the expiration of the three year period, we are free to destroy our records related to this engagement.

Certain communications involving tax advice are privileged and not subject to disclosure to the IRS. By disclosing the contents of those communications to anyone, or by turning over information about those communications to the government, you may be waiving this privilege. To protect this right to privileged communication, please consult with us or your attorney prior to disclosing any information about our tax advice. Should you decide that it is appropriate for us to disclose any potentially privileged communication; you agree to provide us with written, advance authority to make that disclosure.

Should we receive any request for the disclosure of privileged information from any third party, including a subpoena or IRS summons, we will notify you. In the event you direct us not to make the disclosure, you agree to hold us harmless from any expenses incurred in defending the privilege, including, by way of illustration only, our attorney's fees, court costs, outside adviser's costs, or penalties or fines imposed as a result of your asserting the privilege or your direction to us to assert the privilege.

The returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. In the event of an audit, you may be requested to produce documents, records, or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on a tax return. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of a tax examination, we will be available, upon request, to represent you. However, such additional services are not included in the fees for the preparation of the tax returns.

Our fees for tax services will be billed upon completion of your returns at the appropriate rate for the level and value of services rendered, plus out-of-pocket expenses. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation. If for any reason the account is turned over for collection, an additional charge of 33 1/3% will be added to cover collection costs.

In the event of a dispute related in any way to our services, our firm and you agree to discuss the dispute and, if necessary, to promptly mediate in a good faith effort to resolve. We will agree on a mediator, but if we cannot, either of us may apply to a court having personal jurisdiction over the parties for appointment of a mediator. We will share the mediator's fees and expenses equally, but otherwise will bear our own attorneys' fees and mediation cost. Participation in such mediation shall be a condition to either of us initiating litigation. In order to allow time for the mediation, any applicable statute of limitations shall be tolled for a period not to exceed 120 days from the date either of us first requests in writing to mediate the dispute. The mediation shall be confidential in all respects, as allowed or required by law, except our final settlement positions at mediation shall be admissible in litigation solely to determine the prevailing party's identity for purposes of the award of attorneys' fees. You agree to indemnify us for any legal fees incurred by us as a result of any inaccurate or false representations made to us.

We have the right to withdraw from this engagement, in our discretion, if you don't provide us with any information we request in a timely manner, or refuse to cooperate with our reasonable requests or misrepresent any facts. Our withdrawal will release us from any obligation to complete your return and will constitute completion of our engagement. You agree to compensate us for our time and out-of-pocket expenses through the date of our withdrawal.

If the foregoing correctly sets forth your understanding of our tax engagement, please sign this letter in the space below and return it to our office. We want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to work with you.

Sincerely,

Cristina Andreana, CPA

Electronic Filing

Electronic Filing:

Electronic filing is the means by which your return is transmitted directly to the IRS and state tax authorities. The IRS has implemented an electronic filing mandate requiring certain preparers, including this firm, to file all returns that they prepare electronically. Some states also require certain preparers to electronically file state returns prepared. The IRS and some states allow taxpayers to elect not to file their returns electronically.

Do not electronically file the federal return

Do not electronically file the state return(s)

Note: The IRS and some states that require returns to be electronically filed also impose fees and/or penalties for failure to do so. If you checked either of the boxes above, you may be required to sign an "opt-out" form before we can release your returns. As a follow-up we will contact you to discuss these requirements and your ability to "opt-out" of electronic filing.

The IRS requires, and many states allow, the use of a Personal Identification Number (PIN) in lieu of mailing a signature document when electronically filing.

Would you like to use a randomly generated PIN?
